

Apr 8 – Richard Lee’s mother celebrated her 88th birthday and was also baptized. Her whole clan was there to celebrate. Two days later Richard became a grandfather to Lydia Lee, daughter of son, Marcus and wife, Stef. We congratulate Richard Lee for the double blessings he received.

Apr 15 - Those who signed up for the Flower

Arrangement lesson during the Open House had their first lesson today. It is no surprise that it was all ladies who attended.

Apr 9 – During the last few Sundays, the CGs had a table outside the Sanctuary to recruit new members. Today they provided peanuts to attract the people to join the CGs. I am not sure if peanuts can attract.

Apr 14 – Good Friday at new JCC. We had the traditional hammering a nail onto a wooden cross. What thoughts were on our minds at the time? “My sins nailed You (Jesus) to the cross” or “My sins I nail to the cross”?
