

The Vine This Month
Editor:
Alicia Wong

Writers this issue:
John Lee
Alicia Wong
Peggy Tan

Photos:
Martin Cheah

Cover Photo:
Pastor Andrew moves
on to QLC

HOM Editorial

Rev Fredric moves back to JCC. May they both enjoy God's favour in the churches where God has moved them to. We bid a fond farewell to Pastor Andrew and family and warmly welcome Rev Fredric and Dorothy back into our fold.

6 Jan 2019 – Dedication Sunday.

A bunch of us, HOMs and CG Leaders were called up to be empowered for our ministries for this New Year. Sometimes I wonder how a HOM or CG Leader can succeed without his or her team members' support. Indeed I have to thank God for the good support I get from my team members. I am not a Lone Ranger, I have a Tonto (Team Of Naturally Talented Oldies).

With Pastor Andrew leaving, a new team had to be formed and God infused the Multi-Media Ministry with some new blood to go another mile. We have two new members who signed up to do the website and four additional photographers who are joining the ministry.

January is a moving month as Pastor Andrew moves to QLC and

The good news is that most of these probies (Probie is the new member of the team – TV serial NCIS terminology) are young people. So apparently, the ministry may be making inroads into the territory of the Youths where we have been lacking all these past years. It is my hope that The Vine will see a new season, equal to the one that Alicia and Joyce brought to it in 2016.

Martin Cheah